

Rock Solid Faith

What are you currently doing to stay close to God in these six key areas of your life?

Repentance: Do you practice repenting when you realize that you're making sinful choices?

Bible study: Do you take time to personally study the Bible? If so, how do you do it? What plan do you follow?

Being Mentored/Disciplined: What person (or people) in your life right now might qualify as a spiritual coach or mentor?

Church: What church do you go to? How often do you get together with your church family?

Service: What are you doing now to serve other Christians and/or unbelievers for God?

Friends: Who are your closest friends? Do they influence you to walk closer with God? Do you influence them with your beliefs?

What will you do to stay close to God in these six key areas of your life in college?

Repentance: Do you plan to practice regular repentance once you get to college? How will that work?

Bible study: How can you come up with a plan for studying God's Word for yourself while you're in college?

Being Mentored/Disciplined: Do you know someone who can disciple or mentor you during your first year in college? If not, what's your plan for finding that person?

Church: What church will you attend while at college? If you don't know, how will you choose one?

Service: What ideas do you have for serving other Christians and/or unbelievers for God during your first year in college?

Friends: Do you know who some of your friends will be when you start college? If not, how will you choose your friends?
